Well Done, Richard!

Richard Dransfield has recently completed the New Forest Marathon in support of Headway. Here are a few words from Richard:

"My mother has had epilepsy for the majority of her life and certainly for all of mine.

Throughout the years I've been witness to the amazing support she has received from Headway. The ability to share experiences with others, support those who feel isolated and help in their darkest times have been invaluable to my family and my mother.

In order to help I was silly enough to run a half-marathon through the New Forest woods and hoped to raise £200 to give a little back.

In the end I managed to not just complete, but exceed the target £200! Not only was it great fun to drag myself through the 21.4km run, but was also fantastic to cross that finish line and know I've helped give a little back!

Thank you to everyone who donated!"
